“ Rainey, I can't believe it took me so long to find you and now I see this. We were the best of friends in Jr high and HS in Brownsboro. Saturday dances, science fairs, slipping out of biology class to get your blood sugar up, spending weekends at your parents home. I've thought of you so many times, but we lost touch even before the internet could have reconnected us. I love you dearly my sweet, sweet friend. My love to Jamie, Sylvia and James who gave me a home away from home. Kimberly (Helde/Robertson) McArthur

“ I don’t know where to begin because of the hurt I am feeling with a close friend being taken from me. I am saddened to hear you are gone from this place we call home (earth). But on the other hand I am happy knowing that you and I will be together again someday in a place that you will not have to be in pain anymore. We call each other adopted brother and sister because we have known each other almost our whole lives but in reality, you were the only girl that would ever write me when I was in the Army stationed in Europe at the grand old age of 17. I will never forget you. Even to this day before I heard the bad news, I thought of you often. I am sorry we all go our separate ways an loose touch with each other until something like this happens. I have always loved you and your family as my family. I must go now because I don’t like feeling the way I am now. Until we meet again, I will miss knowing you are not here. “ When we first met Rainey 15 or 16 years ago she was full of life and always treated our daughter Jessica and the two of us as friends and accepted us as we were. She bonded with Jessica from the start, and it warms our hearts in this time of grief to know that they are together once again. There is no doubt that they have picked up where they left off and are laughing and swapping stories. We relished her companionship and appreciated the love she shared with Walt. We always had the greatest of times together. Rainey will be truly missed by those who were fortunate enough to have experienced a part of her life. God bless you Sweetheart, we’ll be there eventually. Save us a spot. Love Jack & Judy###imported-begin###Jack & Judy Witt###imported-end##

“ To my dearest sister, to whom I will miss so much. We came into this world together and I wish I could have been there and spent more time with you, before the good lord took you home, but in my heart I know you are in a better place. I will miss you dearly, Love Curtis Chamberlain and Family.##imported-begin##Curtis Chamberlain##imported-end##
