“ As a kid I visited my grandparents, Ollie and Pearl Stanley, mostly during the summer and Randy and I were usually together a lot of the time during my visits. Being kids without any fear we would walk the creek behind their house and look for snakes with homemade frog gigs and our pocket knives. We found and killed lots of snakes, mostly cottonmouths! I guess we didn't realize how dangerous it really was and that my grandparents couldn't do much to help us as they were in their late seventies and early eighties. The Lord watched over us during those times and Randy and I both were blessed with awesome spouses and families. May the Lord bless you during this difficult time and as I remember the good times Randy and I shared my prayer is that you will as well. He will be missed! Andy Dill

“ Randy was a wonderful co-worker during my 10 years at Geo. P. Bane as well as a good friend. My sympathies to his family. Always remember that Randy is not in a "better place", he is in "the place".
