“ The most wonderful husband and friend. He is in the arms of Jesus now. No more pain and I am happy for that. He will be missed greatly and I will always have a chuckle remembering his wit and dry humor! His children have rallied around me and I am thankful for all they have done and most of all being wonderful adults with caring families and the list of the things they have done for me is too long to write down. I know they are very sad but they can have comfort knowing he loved every one of them unconditionally. We will pull together and get through this rough time. God will bless us!!

“ Nobody could man a BBQ grill as good as my Daddy. He made the best BBQ chicken ever. I'll miss his wonderful BBQ but mostly I'll miss him kissing my forehead and hugging me tight. If had had never spoken the words...I still would have known just how very much he loves me.

“ Always looking for a great fishing hole, Bob was given permission from an acquaintance to fish on his land. He invited me to come check it out with him. That turned out to be the single most successful day of Bass fishing in my life. We had the whole place to ourselves , everything coming out was at least 2 lbs and they just kept coming.
