“ Mr. Bailey is the only teacher I remember from High School. Vocational teacher 1990-1991 I would bring him shelled pecans for his squirrels (my dad owned a store just down from Mesquite High School). Mr. Bailey... I don't think he knew how much he was loved and respected by our class over those two years. Because of this mans leadership I graduated High School and started my business in 1992. This man taught me more than he had to. He treated us great and .. I know people say "I think about them all the time" .. you know that's not true... but this is "I think about Mr. bailey at least weekly". I have since I graduated. I hung back after the bell rang on our last day of class 1991 and shook his hand, I thanked him... seems like yesterday! He was the Last Teacher I spoke to I'm 50 now! by 1992 I owned a carpet restoration company and Bathtub Refinishing Business, He taught me how to stand behind your word, not to be afraid to take a chance. To work hard and not take yourself too serious. Sorry I waited this Long to post. That's on me. Thank You Sir! Thank you for your wisdom!

“ So sorry for your loss, I’m so glad I was a part of his life. He was a sweet man. I pray the Lord will comfort and heal all his precious family. He is in your future and not your past. Praise the Lord for that.##imported-begin##Lauren Pippins##imported-end##
