“Rodgers Curnutt was a wonderful man and he took care of our home when it needed to be painted/repared. He was so courteous and meticulous and took great care to do everything well and in a timely fashion. Just a few months ago, he had completed a large job including painting, caulking the exterior of our home and large fenced yard; he worked so carefully and we were unaware at this time that he was ill. He never complained until a few weeks before his death, "he would take time off for December." We just learned of his death and we send our most sincere condolences to his family, especially to his daughters and grandchildren! He loved them much and spoke so highly of them. He will be missed! Rest in peace, dear Rodgers!

Sincerely in Christ,
