

Ronald Edward Booker

May 8, 1947 - December 4, 2013

Memorial services for Mr. Ronald Edward Booker, age 66, of Lindale, Texas are scheduled for 2:00 P.M. Friday in the Caudle-Rutledge Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Michael Gott officiating. Mr. Booker died Wednesday, December 4, 2013 at his residence. He was born August 6, 1947, to the late John Edward and Edyth Millie (Langley) Booker in Seagraves, Texas and during his lifetime lived in a variety of places which included: Colorado, Dallas, Lubbock, and Tyler. One of his talents included playing a trumpet in the Hobbs High School band and that talent enabled him to serve his military obligation by traveling around the world playing in the USAF band.

Mr. Booker attended a Baptist church and was a member of the Christian Motorcycle Association in Lindale and AA in Tyler and Dallas. The "Big Sandy" was a familiar place that Ron would frequent. He had such a love for dancing and spent many hours dancing the night away.

Mr. Booker is survived by his son & daughter-in-law, Kris & Lisa Booker of Colorado; sisters & brothers-in-law, Vicki and Don Lawler of Lubbock, Texas and Sharon & Andrew Rhue of Tyler, Texas; and brother and sister-in-law, John Richard "Rick" and Sharon Booker of Ft. Worth, Texas. Ron is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and cousins. A private burial for the family will follow the Memorial Service.

“ hi.this is Christine violet Ross Jacob. I was friends and went with Ron for a while at Amarillo airforce base in 1967 -1968. I visited him on Thanksgiving right before he flew to the Philippines at his aunt and uncles house in Lubbock. I was reading the diary that I kept then so was thinking about him a lot. I touched base with him years ago in Chicago but didn't hear from him anymore. In that time I went to school got married and had a son got divorced and moved back and forth between Wisconsin and Minnesota .in Minnesota now. after reading my diary I decided to figure where people are now one thing I mentioned was he was a good dancer. I still keep in touch with Layton ave Baptist church and Lutheran churches too.
