“ you don't know me, but my Mr Shores cut my Daddy's hair - Walter Prescott - for many, many, many years. Up until the time of is own death it was one of my Dad's very favorite things to do... go there and visit and share a laugh with all the other men there waiting for haircuts. So I wanted to just send condolences and sympathy from our family to yours and let you know Mr Shores brought a bright spot to my Dad's life.

“ I remember taking our grandson to Mr. Whan for a haircut. He was crying because he was scared and we all laughed. Mr. Whan reached for his box of gum and Jared took a handful but Mr. Whan made him put all but 1 piece back. My husband just loved to go in the shop for his haircut and gossip. Mr. Whan was a Great man. R.I.P. Mr. Whan.

“ Cuzin' Whan as Anthony would say - always a happy gentlemen.
He and Anthony are now catching up on the latest news in Heaven.
Anthony said Whan would always ask him how he wanted his hair cut and then cut it the way he wanted to or knew how to. So funny!
He will be missed. So glad I got to visit with him last Sunday at Memorial. Praying for the family.

“ so sorry about Whan, When I was about 12 years old or so and he worked at Fleming Grocery, he always bought a weekly "Grit" newspaper from me. I thought that he was such a nice man to do that. I think by selling these papers, I made between 35 and 50 cents a week.
