“ I still remember Momma telling me that Uncle Cecil never let her call him Uncle. Then when I wasn't very old I said to him, &quot;You must be my Great-Uncle Cecil?&quot; He said, &quot;I'm the greatest baby!&quot; And from that moment on he was my special Uncle Cecil. I loved him so much, and I know he loved me. He used to try and talk me into coming and staying with him and Sharon for awhile.

I wish Jimmy & I could come back for the funeral, but you know we love you and will be praying for you.

Take care of yourself. He loved you so much.

“ I still think of Cecil as that 17 year old teenager, who told me I couldn’t call him ‘Uncle Cecil’, when I was five. To me he has always been that teenager and I was the five year old who looked up to him.

I am glad my mother is not here to witness this, but has been waiting for him in Heaven. She cried so, when she got a letter from him telling her he was going to Korea.

I love you, and will meet you at the cemetery on Monday afternoon.

*Love,
