

Shalyn Michael Reese

November 25, 1988 - August 6, 2023

Shalyn Michael Reese, age 34, from Lindale, Texas passed away on Sunday, August 6th, 2023. Shalyn was born November 25th, 1988, to Melessa Diane Reese in Alva, Oklahoma. He was a member of the Cross Brand Cowboy Church in Tyler, TX and took much pride in his relationship with the Lord.. Shalyn spent his time doing what he loved, working with horses. Whether it be trail rides, riding lessons, or just showing TLC, he always found joy and humbleness in spending time with them. Next to spending time with horses, Shalyn spent most of his time with family and friends, in particular, his son was his absolute greatest joy in life. Shayln loved to be the center of attention in every crowd and lit up every room that he entered. He had a heart of gold and was happy to lend a helping hand if need be. His laughter was contagious and his love was as genuine as it comes. He survived by his mother, Melessa Dianne Reese; Step dad, Russell Palmer; Grandmother, Shirley Lovin; Sister, Tori Baker; Brother, Braden Ashcraft; and his son, Paxton Reese.

“ Oh man, Sha was one silly guy. From the bus, to riding his horse to my house randomly on the weekends. He was truly one of a kind. It's true that he lights up at space he is in, he was just that person. Sha, you went home too soon but at least we all know you will be waiting for us up in heaven.

“ No matter what was going on Shalyn would always make you laugh. His smile was contagious and his laugh was too. After spending any amount of time with Sha, your face would hurt from laughing so much. Sha had a heart of gold and he gave the best hug's. Lisa, Tori, Braden and family, I pray God wraps you all tightly in his arms and gives you comfort.
