I met Sharon through my husband William Pray. She was a delight to be around. I will always remember her joyful attitude and visiting her home many years ago. She served us a great meal and talked about her children and grandchildren. I know that her presence will be missed, may many great memories always be sweet for those that knew her. I know that my husband will certainly miss visiting Sharon. May her soul soar with the eagles in the heavenly world and the memories of her grow sweeter.
