Such a beautiful lady! She is such a special part of our family from early days in Bermuda with my in-laws, to all their visits over the years and when they welcomed us into their home and lives when we lived in Texas. Our last visit with her in October was brief but so sweet. We cherish our time with her and love her very much.

“ A wonderful friend who ministered to so many people. She was at my home the day after I lost my husband with her "sack of goodies". I still use the foot warmer she made for me a few years ago, except now I put in on my back when it hurts. I told Sharron this and she said "Wherever it does the most good." Her contributions to the landscaping of our new church facility in memory of Herb and others have enhanced the beauty of our grounds. She loved to do for others. I miss her. Patsy Hemmings

“ Sharron was a strong and courageous woman with a tremendous heart. I admired her strength and her ability to care for others. My favorite memories revolve around Christmas with the family. She always tried to make the holidays special for everyone whether it was preparing a wonderful meal or giving the most thoughtful gifts. And I know this would make her smile: I'm really, really going to miss her sweet potato casserole. But most of all I miss her. I'm better for knowing her, and I know she'll be keeping a watchful eye on her family that she loved so much. ”
