“ Sherry, It came as a shock to hear you had passed. I had expected we would get together soon as we had planned. I wish we had more time! I had so much fun with you and even though we had met just a short time ago our connection was instant! You were an amazing person with a huge heart. I'm so blessed to have crossed paths with you. May you rest in peace! ❤️🙏 Sincerely, Julie Harris

“ Dear Dave and family,

So terribly sorry to read of Sherry's sudden passing. I was thinking about her last week, wondering how she was. I was disappointed when Covid broke out and you couldn't come visit us when you were in Maine re restricted border crossing. I am glad that you both got to travel for a few years in your RV seeing the sites in the US. Having chronic illness never stopped her and I was happy to hear she was breathing better after the last surgery.

Dave, you were a dedicated and understanding husband that many don't get the opportunity to have. I will keep you and the family in prayer during this trying time.

In hope we will meet one another at last in the Eternity of Heaven.

Rest well my friend. †

“ Sherry was my dear friend for 44 years and that kind of friendship is a true gift. Through all of the seasons life, she was there, and I will always cherish the memories we made. My heart is broken, but I am so grateful I got to call her my friend. She will not be forgotten. My thoughts are with Dave, Linda, Amanda and the rest of of the family during g this difficult time.
