“ It was always a blessing to see Shirley's smiling face years ago when we attended Prairie Creek together. I saw her through the years at the store. I was so sorry on the day when she didn't recognize me. May God bless you all with those precious memories of her younger years.

*Sincerely,

“ Shirley was a woman who loved God and her family and was always willing to be a servant for the Lord. I have many good memories of her. She has left many grieving hearts behind because she was such a treasure. I rejoice for her because she is with her Lord and Saviour. I pray for comfort for her family. We love you guys. I'm thankful that I had the privilege of knowing this sweet woman.
