“ Haven't seen you that often we still managed to talk on the phone and share pictures in the mail. You helped me fill holes in our family history that I had struggled with for years.

Thanks and I love you and will miss you.

“ I've probably known Shirley for less time than most of you, but I cherished my 2 years with her! Shirley loved to 'shop' at Goodwill. She "wasn't looking for anything in particular", she just loved going up and down the aisles, chatting with the people who worked there and the other customers. We became quite the pair showing up 2 times a week! She even turned ME into a Goodwill shopper.

We'd then go shopping for a 'biscuit', which I'm thinking is a biscuit you'd have with chicken fingers or biscuit and gravy. But no, she was thinking 'donut' and trying to find one of those at 3pm in the afternoon was quite the challenge! She had quite the sweet tooth!

I also remember the time we tried to find bluebonnets so we could take our picture. She was a trooper as I drove all the country roads scoping them out. Then she modeled for me while I took her picture.

We also did several activities at the Senior Center that she enjoyed. We always found something fun, because she made it fun! I'll miss you Shirley!

Love, your friend Carol
