“ I love you Granny and will always tell my kids about all the memories and things you would want them to know. This has been the hardest for me to except but I know that's being selfish because you were ready. I'm so proud to be your grandson and miss you so much already and I know you always wanted and made sure I was happy in times I felt like I had nothing or nobody. You were my best friend and we love you so much and I'm proud to have little miss Starlie Rinlee named after you. She and everyone I love will always know how special you were and what you meant to me. Rest easy and tell Papa i said hello.

“ Oh what a beautiful soul Aunt Starlie was. What a great life she has lived. Aunt Starlie was an exemplary Christian wife and a phenomenal mother. She loved unconditionally, generously and with so much grace. She definitely left a dent on this Earth and completed her duties as God intended. I will always carry a vivid memory of her sweet face and sweet voice. All that knew her are beyond blessed to have known this Godly woman. Although she will be missed, it is with great comfort to know that Aunt Starlie is Home. To my Rinlee cousins: I Love You All and will be praying for you now and in the days to come.

Proverbs 31:26-28 She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. She looks well to the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her.
