“ Robert brought Tammy and the girls to our house to met us for the first time.

Me and Rex were laying 10 palets of St Augustin grass. Tammy and the girls were all dress to a tee... Tammy took her shoes off and started laying grass, the girls started helping too. As they laid the grass Tammie was talking and laughing as she worked, I could not understand a word she was saying , she talked so fast, but I would just laugh and hope I should be laughing at what she said. ( To this day I can still hear that laugh of hers..) I thought to myself , Robert better hang on to her...

And he did, Me and Rex were their when Robert and Tammie got married at the house at the lake. My Uncle that had married me and Rex married them, I can still see Tammie in her dress she was so Beautiful. Tammy and Robert made the perfect couple, they both loved to cook and feed everyone.

And the Love that they have for each other is so Beautiful...

Our Love and Prayer are with You Robert, and Your Family,
Connie and Rex
