“ Can't even begin to say how sweet and Loving Tana was during the most scariest time of my life! She came to ICU to see Mickey, I didn't recognize her at first, she said I'm Aunt Tana with a big loving smile..made me feel so grateful..she bought us a freezer, her and Niney and they checked on us all the time..they fed us, Leelee too, gosh can't say how much she loved us..or how much we truly Loved her! We will truly Miss her! ❤️

“ Sweet aunt Tana. She heard me and my 3 children didn't have A/C (during the heatwave 1993) it was so hot in Austin the humidity was so bad it didn't even cool down much at nighttime. She gave my mother (her sister Zona) $350 for me to get a window unit. It was such a blessing unexpected but so appreciated. What an example of love , I'm sure it was a sacrifice for her I think it would be for most retired single women!!! She helped as needed as her heart felt for us , she's gone on to get her rewards now,God sees even a drink of water you give the Bible says. Love her ❤️
