“ I met Thomas when we both attended Boulter Jr. High and then John Tyler. We had lunch frequently throughout high school and I knew him to be an outgoing, friendly, and kind person. He also had a smile and a greeting for everyone, even those of us who may not have been included in the popular circles in school. I pray that God will comfort the family. He will be missed.##imported-begin##Darrell Clakley##imported-end##

“ Joe Bob, We lived across the street from your parents in Mt. Sylvan years ago. I was saddened to hear about the tragic loss of your son. I did not know him but my son, Chuck Cowan, an Attorney in Tyler, knew him. May he rest in peace and you and your family get through this time knowing that God understands all. Sincerely, Robbie Cowan##imported-begin##Robbie Wagner Cowan##imported-end##

“ Through these dark hours you do not walk alone. God is beside you, holding your hand and comforting all who seek Him. The true grief that overwhelms you will heal in time be certain of that. Hold on to the sweet memories and the good times and forget those things that will only sadden your heart. With greatest admiration and respect to the family of Thomas Blow.
