“ The last coiple of days have been so surreal it didnt hit me until just now that you're really gone. Now I can't stop crying. Even though i haven't seen him in awhile i never thought i would never see him on yhis earth again. I have too many memories to Try to name them, from your first apartment to our kids growing up together and everything in between. It's hard to say goodbye to such a good man! Love you Toby. RIP my friend! ❤️❤️❤️🙏

“ I mirror everything Jay said below. I will add to it. I loved the sparkle in his eyes whenever he smiled! He love to brag on his family. He adored Donna. You could tell how much they were still in love by all the pictures they took with each other. He was very humble and would go out of his way to be there for his family. I will miss him terribly, but knowing he is now with our parents I know he is at peace.

“ I’m gonna reserve the right to return and post other memories. But tonight let me just say how much I loved and respected my brother. He worked hard to provide and never even considered it an option to quit. He took ownership of his good and not-so-good fortunes. He was the kindest man I knew. If you think I’m just sayin that because he’s passed, you are absolutely wrong. Toby and I lived in different ‘worlds’ but if I needed him, I knew I could count on him. He was kind, and funny, and he cherished his family! I loved him like a brother, and I liked him as a friend! I am so fortunate to be able to say that!

Lovelyest brother and friend a person a person could ever ask for. Too many good memories to even list. He will always be in my heart.

Toby was a wonderful human being and will be deeply missed by a lot of people. He loved Donna very much. Donna and Toby would do virtually everything together. Toby loved his family, friends, and his doggies! Toby opened his heart and allowed me to become a part of his family without hesitation. We got such a kick finding out about each other and getting to know him was a lot of fun. I am convinced Toby enjoyed everything he did. He had a wonderful sense of humor. Toby was a kid at heart and a hard-working man. He was genuinely sweet and loveable. I am sure whoever Toby met, ended up liking him very much. Toby was truly a one-of-a-kind gentle man and I am proud to call him my brother. I have only two regrets. One, I did not make the time to meet him and two, I did not get a chance to know him longer. Rest in peace Toby. We will meet on the other side.
