“ I remember one time him and I had a disagreement, and I had said something smart to him and when I did I floored my truck trying to get away from him cause I knew he was going to thump my ear. Yet when I floored it white smoke rolled out from the tailpipe and I was rocking trying to get the truck to move faster and all I could see was him coming in the rear view. several days later we see each other again he looked at me and I looked at him and we both started laughing and gave each other a hug, and we relived me running from him in the truck that didn't want to go no where with white smoke choking him out! Uncle Bubba I'm going to miss you and you know I love you. I need to ask a favor, when you see Brentley tell him I'm sorry and I love him! You will be missed more than you know!
