“ I am just now seeing this. I attended Tyler High School with T-Byrd...he was fun to be around... then years later...his son and mine attended Whitehouse Texas High School together. Rest in peace...

“ A few years ago, husband and I, along with lots of family, having Christmas..Byrd use to like candles, so I gave him a Yankee brand candle and my mother, Diann, a hatchet...she loved to work in her flower beds...the look on their faces when they held those gifts up was priceless and soo funny, which he was.
