“ Aunt Vickey, I can remember how you used to priss around Granny & Grandaddy's house when you were in high school and dating Uncle Robert getting ready for him to pick you up. Susie and I were laughing today about how you used to rat your hair with a toothbrush and then comb it down. I also remember on Valentine's Day one year when Robert bought you the biggest box of heart shaped candy I had ever seen. It must have stood up to his waist. You shared your candy with all of us. You were the most beautiful person inside and out and you raised your children to exact same way. Rhonda, Kathy, and Bobby I am so very sorry and can only imagine how your hearts are breaking. Please know Heaven's gain is our loss and we have the promise of our Lord that we will see Vickey again. I love you so much and you are in my thoughts and prayers.
