“ Will always remember your generosity and talent, and thank the day that you took me on as a carving student. Good times with Kaye, you and the whole group, were always plentiful. May you rest in peace my dear friend.

“ We knew Wayne the past few years as part of the HAWL 42 club. He was a skilled and wily player, and everyone enjoyed partnering with him. But win or lose, he always had a twinkle in his eye to let you know he didn't take the game that seriously. Wayne will be greatly missed.
