

Wilma Johnson Carsten

September 27, 1946 - June 17, 2013

Memorial services for Wilma Johnson Carsten, age 66, of McKinney are scheduled for 2:00 P.M. Saturday, June 22, 2013 in the Caudle-Rutledge Funeral Home Chapel in Lindale, Texas officiated by Steve Sill and Ricky Haun.

Ms. Carsten was born September 27, 1946 in Palestine, Texas the daughter of the late Travis Lee and Evelyn (Wright) Johnson. Her late ex- husband of 32-years, Tyrone Carsten of Colorado, preceded her in death. Wilma went to be with her Lord and Savior during the morning hours on Monday, June 17, 2013 in McKinney, Texas after a lengthy illness.

Ms. Carsten lived in McKinney for the past 15 years. Prior to that, she was a resident of Cortez, Colorado and Tyler, Texas. She was a nurse, homemaker, and member of the Red Hat Society. Her smiles, attention to the smallest details in the lives of others, and desire to build relationships through encouragement and love made her a fervent prayer warrior and friend to many. She was lovingly known as "Aunt Wanna" and "Nana" by her family and "Walkie Talkie" by her friends. She believed laughter was the best medicine and never said goodbye, rather, "I'll talk to ya later!" She will be dearly missed.

Wilma Carsten is survived by her daughter and son-in-law Elizabeth and Mark Abbott and her two grandchildren Tyler and Madison Abbott of Prosper Texas; brother and sister-in law Travis Lee and Gayla Johnson of Texarkana, Texas; sister Frances Johnson of Chapel Hill, Texas; niece, Stacy Johnson Hamilton and her husband Nathan of Little Rock, Arkansas. Other living relatives include aunts and cousins.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the caring Hospice agency that played a role in comforting Wilma during her last days: Novus Health Services 2591 Dallas Parkway #403, Frisco, TX 75034.

“ Mrs Wilma was a wonderful friend. I am her hair dresser and have knowed wilma around 10 year's maybe longer. She always had a beautiful smile and hair and make-up prefect! . She always asked about the family. She has been a blessing and a friend . She was so much more. , she was family. My son Dylan would make a trip to McKinney to see Mrs Wilma he grew up in the beauty shop , and through all these year's we all have stayed close to her. She was truly a beautiful person who God put into my life and Say I will miss her is an under statement . All my prayers go out to liz and her two grandchildren.you have an awesome Angel watching down from heaven. ? Judy K Pelton
