“ I am Davelyn Lubbeck, Aunt Winnie's niece. My Aunt Winnie was the rarest of jewels!! She sparkled constantly and bedazzled all of us with her energy and her zeal for life and people!! Aunt Winnie was always an inspiration to me and everyone she came in contact with because my Aunt Winnie truly knew what "abundant life" meant--life in her Savior, Jesus Christ!! Every time we were together that's all we talked about--Jesus and the transformations He had done in our lives. Aunt Winnie loved everyone and had the Heart of our Savior--she was forgiving, kind, nonjudgmental, caring and always putting others first. My Aunt Winnie was loved and adored by me and so many others especially her children and her grandchildren. She talked about her kids and grandkids with me and rejoiced in the Lord that God had so abundantly blessed her with her precious family. My heart is with all of you because, again, you have lost a rare jewel. I know that all of us will miss her so much, but as for me I can say, "I'll see you soon Aunt Winnie. I love you dearly." Your niece, Davelyn

“ So many wonderful memories of time spent with my aunt Winnie. All the childhood trips to douglasville for holidays, visits and vacation bible school. She was only 6 yrs older than me. How she and Betty took me to the lake and said "don't dare tell mom". That was a no no! The yrs after...when I would visit mom, Lester and sherry. She was a character. Sweet and fun. I am happy I got to have a nice long visit with her New Years....we even took a pretty good picture. My thoughts or with her loved ones during this time of grief.....carolyn. (Daughter of Ellen)
